Dear Benzor Shem Vidal:

Please refer to the following link for your initial guidance for your upcoming US Embassy Immigrant Visa Application interview on January 19, 2022 at 9:30AM.

https://ais.usvisa-info.com/en-gb/iv/information/iv_overview.

Through this link you can see and make reference to the following matter:

1. Pre-interview checklist of the documents; some documents may not be required of you depending on which category you are included.

Please make sure that you will have the following:

RN credentials: NY license and CGFNS visa screen certificate (original and photocopies)

School Credential: diploma and transcript of records

Civil documents: PSA issued birth cert, marriage cert (if applicable), valid passport, NBI clearance and/or police clearance from your present place of residence

2. Registration of your delivery address;
3. Interview Guidelines;
4. Medical Examination Instructions. Please coordinate with the US Embassy for the accredited clinic/hospital. Please take note that it may take about 5 days before you get the result and the medical examination result is valid only for 6 months. The objective is that you should have a valid medical examination result at the time of the interview.

Further, kindly find the following attachment for your perusal:

1. Cover Letter

2. Amended Employment Agreement
3. Introductory Guide to Skilled-Nursing Facility
4. Nurses Quick Guide

Please review this guidelines carefully and prepare your documents. PLEASE make yourself available sometime next week and we will discuss all these concerns. Briefing and a short lecture will be conducted by one of our Operations Manager and myself. Please be prepared for a video call using Microsoft Teams. This meeting may take an hour to 1.5 hour the most. We will send you a separate invite on a specific date. We are also hoping that you can provide us with your contact details for Viber or Skype (if you have one).

Will call you prior to this date to monitor how things are going. Also for your reference, we will send the original copy of the Job Offer and Support Letter to the address that you have provided.

Let us know too should you have any questions or clarification.

Thank you,

Joel Rosalio
